Historic Inauguration
John Whiteside 5th

On January 20, 2009, Comanche Middle School watched the Historic Inauguration of Barack Obama. He was the first African American to become president! We watched it in the Library and in the Cafeteria. He was President officially at noon. There were at least 1 million people there. It was backed up for a half a mile. There were more troops than there are in Iraq!

Zoey

John Whiteside 5th

It was Friday, October 10. It was my Birthday! I had no clue what I was going to get! My dad and mom picked me up. They said, "We're going to go to Proctor."

Daddy said, "You're getting a Boer Billy!"

We went to an estate sale, and I was like - why are we going there. We started looking around - not interesting to me.

We saw one of my mom's best friends, Beth Parham. She called my dad over to see a baby crib (weird). Then in about ten minutes they called my mom and I over! There were Blue Heeler Puppies in the crib!!! I got the pick of the litter!! I got a female and she was so cute! The next day I named her Zoey!

Mrs. Smith, my 5th grade math teacher, told me her husband got a boy Blue Heeler!! She has so many stories about him! Bobby, Mrs. Smith's husband, named him Gus! Really his name is Augustus McCray Smith. Zoey and Gus are almost the same age. About two weeks ago Bobby left to Colorado and Gus was circling the house looking for him!!

Now she is 19 weeks old and is very protective and chews everything in sight. The best thing she has learned out of this is she herds my Pygmy and Boer goats. Daddy said, "Zoey is a pretty good pup!"

Super Freckles
Payton Nance 5th

Freckles seems like an ordinary rabbit that lives at Comanche Middle School. Mrs. D is his owner. But every day after school when all the students and Mrs. D leave, Freckles puts on his red cape with a big SF on the back. He also puts on his red mask and, he turns into Super Freckles. He tells all the other animals to cover for him if someone comes in.

Today he was going outside to rescue the world.

Everyone that looks in the sky sees a red strike. Super Freckles can hear a girl screaming. He swoops down to save the little girl from getting hit by a car. "You're lucky little girl. I saved you. Don't ever run in the street. You always need to look both way before you cross the road."

The little girl was amazed to see a rabbit flying and that the rabbit saved her. She didn't notice that it was Super Freckles. She had heard rumors of Super Freckles, but she didn't believe that a rabbit could save people.

Then Super Freckles flew off. As he was flying off, the little girl started to think, "Maybe that's Freckles from school but that's impossible!" Supper Freckles got back to school, in a hurry because He was scared Mrs. D might see him.

The next morning when Mrs. D came to school she, saw a red cape; but she thought it was one of the students so she left it alone. Yeah! Super Freckles identity was saved.

Mouse House
Corie Tunnell 4th

Once upon a time there live a mouse named smiley because he always smiley, except one day he was going to go with some friends but, his mother said to stay in the hole until morning because its to dangerous. But when she went away, he snuck out and ran so she would not know. They ran to the kitchen to look for some cheese like he used to . Then they ran up to the island and saw some cheese but, when they got up there, there was a black and white cat lying there ready to eat them.

So they ran across the island and jumped across except for smiley. He looked and looked and the cat was coming closer then, he saw a broom sitting on the floor so he jumped, hoping to make in and he did. And then he was not smiling, he was frowning.

So they went home and he saw his mother standing their crying because he was missing but when she heard him come down the steps she ran and squeezed him. And she grounded him for three month. And next time his friends come to ask him to go somewhere, he'll ask his mom and then listen to her.

Ted and the Terrific Trip

Angie Evans 4th

One day Ted the teddy bear got a plane ticket from his late uncle. It was a ticket to go to the rainforest. Ted decided to pack up his things and take the adventure of a lifetime. First he called the airport to see if a plane was still there. They talked for hours. Finally, she said that the plane would leave in two hours. He said thank you and hung up.

He would have to hurry to get to the airport. As soon as he got there, he ran for the plane. When he got to the plane they were boarding. He gave the ticket to the man. Once he was boarding, he realized he was on a one hundred year old plane. It had no seat belt for safety.

He started to get very nervous. All of a sudden, they begin to experience a loss of altitude. All of a sudden, Ted felt a crash. Thankfully, they had landed safely.

He got off the plane, retrieved his luggage, and started to leave. Once he got to his hotel, he went to explore. First he walked to the forest. When he got to the forest and started to explore, he begin to hear weird sounds; but he continued on. Then he heard a load growl. All of a sudden, he ran out of the forest screaming. Checked out of the hotel ran back to the plane and headed home. After that he never left his home again.
