

1st grade GT
letters to Santa
by Payton Nance

Ms. Schuman's first grade students love Nursery Rhymes. So they chose a nursery rhyme character and wrote Santa a letter from the point of view of the character's Christmas wishes.

Dear Santa,
I am the cat with the fiddle. My cow needs a parachute before he jumps over the moon. I also need a new spoon because the dish ran away with my other one. I would like a new fiddle too. I broke the strings on my old one. I am glad my dog laughs and is good to me. Also, I think I really need a good cow that won't always be running away and jumping over the moon. I will have milk out for you. I love you.

Dear Santa,
Hello Santa! My name is The Crooked man. I have a crooked cat. I need cat food for him. My cat also needs a bed. The crooked house needs some new paint and a new roof. I also would need a new crooked cane because my old one broke. The crooked tree died so I need a new one so I can plant it this spring. Some of the bricks are broken in the crooked fence so could you please bring me some bricks? I also would like a new hat. I have had a good year. I hope you have too, Santa.
Love,
The Old Crooked Man

Dear Santa,
My name is Humpety Dumpety. I am in a mess. I fell of the wall and I need some help in paying my doctor bills. I broke my crown (head) so I also need some pain pills. I really need some new clothes too. Mine are all torn up from the fall. I also need some bricks to fix the wall. I hope I don't fall anymore. That really hurts. But just in case, would you bring me some band aids? I will try to ber more careful. Hope your reindeer are OK.
Love, Humpety Dumpety

Dear Santa,
Hi! My name is Old Mother Goose. I really do need a few things for myself this Christmas. First I need another goose to ride because my other goose broke his wind and it isn't healing very fast. And just in case my goose doesn't fly well, I would like a parachute. I also would like a new hat and some clothes. My halter for my goose is wearing out too. I could use a new one.
Santa, I hope you have a good trip this year. Be careful flying.
Love,
Old Mother Goose

Dear Santa,
I am the Old Woman in the shoe; I have so many children I don't know what to do. I think maybe a maid could help out a lot. I also need a bigger shoe or either I need two shoes. I also need enough bread and other kinds of food to keep my children fed. A baby sitter would help me too. All of my children need new clothes. I know this is a lot of thing but I am only asking for my children. Thank you very much.

My name is Jack Be Nimble. I have been very good this year. I have also tried to be as safe as possible. This Christmas I would like to e sure I always have water in case of fire. I need same fireproof clothing so I don't burn myself. I broke my candlestick so could you bring me a new one. I also need shoes that will bounce so I can jump even higher. Think is this all for this year. I will leave you cookies and milk.

Love,
Jack Be Nimble

Dear Santa,
Hello! My name is Little Boy Blue. I cannot get up in the morning. So would you please bring me an alarm clock. I think if I had a good dog, he could help me keep the cows out of the corn. I thought of something else. A new bed might help me sleep better. Then maybe I won't get so sleepy during the day. Thank you for bringing all these things. I will try to do a better job next year.
Stay safe.
Love,
Little Boy Blue

Dear Santa,
My name is Little Miss Muffet. I am scared of all the spiders that bother, could you bring me some bug spray so I can get rid of them? The legs fell off my tuffet could you bring me a new one? My bowl broke when I was frightened so I need a new bowl and maybe a spoon too? Can you bring me a broom so I can knock down the cobwebs?
I'd like a new dress with a bow to match. New shoes too.
I love you Santa. Be good.

Love,
Little Miss Muffet
