Pre-K Thanksgiving Feast

Melanie Victoria 3rd

I went to Mrs. Tindol's classroom. I went over to ask her a lot of questions. I asked her what they are learning about and she replied that they were learning about the first Thanksgiving. When I got to their classroom they were painting their hands. Some of the children were eating cookies and drinking milk or juice. A little boy asked Mrs. Tindol who I was and another boy said me, "what's your name?"

The class was really busy learning about turkeys, Indians, and pilgrims. They did a Thanksgiving feast. They are also doing turkey poems for there parents.

all went to the lunchroom and ate crackers, steak and all the good food that pilgrims and Indians ate at the First Thanksgiving.

I have to tell you that food looked so delicious. After that they all went to their classrooms and got pictures taken and all of their faces looked so cute!!!

First And Kindergarten's Feast

The first and kindergartens' feast was really cool. Three first graders dressed up as Indians, and three kindergarteners dressed up as pilgrims. Then they

UIL in Coleman

Camron Creek 3rd

The UIL academic contests were held in Coleman on Thursday, December 4, 2008. There were five other schools that were competing against us. There were many events happening at the same time. Some of these events included spelling, maps, graphs and charts, number sense, oral reading, story telling, and music memory. It was not a spelling bee where they call out the word and you spell it. They called out the word and you write it down. I was involved in the spelling contest.

Many other second and third grade students competed in one or more of the contests. The results for the second and third grade Elementary are as follows:

2nd grade Creative Writing, Madelyn Welch 3rd place;

Congratulations to all the participants and winners.

Second Grade Happenings

Joe Gilligan 3rd

Mrs. Leonhard's second grade class did a spelling unit on Thanksgiving during the last part of November. Mrs. Crim's second grade class created a turkey using oranges.

Second graders are studying about other countries and are about to begin a study about Christmas.
