Advice Column
Ian Stark

Dear Advice Column, what do you do if friends are stealing friends?

Dear Troubled, Hmm... Well interesting question. I recently had the same problem. Ask them to please stop ignoring you. Then you ask them to play at recess. Just find a point of shared interest to talk about. That is what I did.

Dear Advice Column, I am a bully and I do not like it. How do I stop?

Dear Troubled, don't be mean to anyone anymore; just try to be kind and gentle. The first step is wanting to stop, which means you are going strong. I am proud of you for no longer wanting to bully people. I wish you good luck on being good.

Dear Advice Column, are there a lot of different cultural dances?

Dear Troubled, yes, there is Jarabe Tapatío, or Mexican Hat Dance in English, that consists of hopping steps, heel, and toe tapping movements. There is a Swedish dance known as the Hambo that has far too many steps (get it, steps?) To explain here. It has a male part and a female part. Those are just two dances. Really, there are dozens and dozens of them.

Dear Advice Column, I am not making good grades in Science. How do I bring it up?

Dear Troubled, I think that you should study. Studying is important. Going to bed earlier also helps. I hope you make better grades.

Opinions

Now we have added a section to voice your opinions about things. Such as the Super Bowl, to say a certain to be popular one. Who were you going for? Here is where to talk about it. Let your voice be heard!

Guitar Hero vs.
Playing Guitar
Eli Garcia 6th

Guitar Hero is probably one of the most played games in the video game world that is based like playing a real guitar. Playing Guitar Hero is a lot easier than playing the real instrument. Unlike Guitar Hero's guitar/controller a real guitar has six strings and usually more than twenty frets, while Guitar Hero's only has five frets and zero strings. The hints to do on Guitar Hero know as Hammerons and pull-offs are real, though.

Playing chords on Guitar Hero is similar to playing it on a real guitar. You still push down two frets and hit different strings. A real Gibson S6 (the guitar used on the game) can cost more than 1,000 bucks instead of the game controller that costs sixty. Also you can't tune your guitar on the game. In real life tuning into like a Drop C would be the way most new metal music is played. Also when you play The Ramones you should only play like three cords on the game punk music is usually all like 4 cords.

So if Guitar Hero did this then well done. Guitar hero is a great game, I've beaten it on expert, and it's actually not that hard.

Real guitar is very challenging, I have been playing it for four years, and I can do both, There are so many differences, maybe next year you can try real guitar.

Steelers or Cardinals

Hayden Taylor 5th

I did a vote in our GT class (including the teacher) on who liked the Cardinals or Steelers

Ian: Cardinals

Rachel: Cardinals

Payton: Cardinals

Kendyl: Steelers

Alex: Cardinals

Jazzy: Steelers

Caroline: Steelers

John: Cardinals

Hayden: Cardinals

Mrs.Stepp: Cardinals

The Cardinals got seven votes and the Steelers three but over all the Steelers won the Super Bowl.

T.A.K.S. Tests, a Word to the Wise
Ian Stark 5th

Some people don't like them, they panic. Others can keep a cool head. Words of Wisdom: It is an important test. Although, on the bright side, they are debating whether or not we should take them anymore. Personally, I feel neutrally about the T.A.K.S.. Whether they decide to keep them, or get rid of them, I care not.

T.A.K.S. Test

Be sure to go to bed earlier. Eat a good, big breakfast. Most importantly, don't panic. If you do these things you should ace the test. I am hoping for hundreds ☺, and I am hoping for no failing grades ☺.
