First and second grade GT students reflect on "special" days of school this year.

Austin Hagood
Grade 1

My most unusual day at school this year happened after the first grade class had taken the TPRI test. My teacher, Mrs. Lee told us she had a surprise for us. That surprise was a TPRI test party.

We had peanut butter crackers to eat and apple juice to drink. It was a fun party because we had worked so hard on the test all week.

We enjoyed that very much.

My best day in school this year was on Thursday. I like Thursdays because it is G/T day. I like G/T because this year we had a business of our own. I had my business with Austin. We had a puppet show. Our first puppet show was at Christmas time. My favorite show was called "Snowman in Space."

The snowman wanted to get to Jupiter. But the Sun Dragon owned it. He kept on falling apart by the Sun Dragon. In the end, the Snowman fell back to earth in Antarctica where there was lots of snow. And he lived happily ever after.

Grade 1

My best day at school was the day we had our Christmas Party in Mrs. Underwood's classroom.

That day we got to eat candy. I brought the Kool Aid for us to drink. We didn't have to work very much that day. We also got to go home early that day. We got to go home for the Christmas Holidays for about a week.

That was a great time.

Grade 2

My best day ever is when we go to the playground. This is every day, so I like school every day. On the playground we have three monkey bars, two slides, one merry-go-round, and we have a sandbox. We have ten swings and two soccer goals. One slide is pink and the other is rainbow color. The merry-go-round is blue and yellow and the sandbox has red poles and yellow poles.

Now you know what my favorite thing to do at school is.

Camron Creek
Grade 2

My funniest day of school was as we were doing reading, spelling, math, all of a sudden an eraser broke into the classroom with a chicken. It was hilarious because it started to rip my paper!!! My teacher thought I was playing so she got rid of the eraser. But the chicken was too fast. My teacher spent the whole entire day just getting that chicken out of the classroom!! We didn't get any work done that day.

Now, do you really believe this?

Emily Tindol
Grade 2

My funniest day at school was on a Tuesday. It was recess. Everyone gathered around so I came and looked and what do you know? It was a lizard on our playground. Some said it was alive. Some said it was dead. Then the teacher told us to go play somewhere else. When recess was almost over this guy named Conner touched the lizard guts. Well that's what he thought anyway. But he said it wasn't lizard guts. The lizard was pregnant.

So I thought, well I think it's better to touch a lizard egg. He looked at me kind of funny, like. Then recess was over. So that afternoon school, I looked and the lizard was gone,

But that must mean everything is OK.

Grade 2

My most unusual day at school was on a Thursday. When I got to my G/T classroom two of my friends were already in the there. A few minutes later, we had to call the office because two of my other friends weren't in the room. So we called the office and soon they came in. I was reaching in my desk and I found a stapler. Ms. Schuman said, "Well, Joe, I know you didn't leave a stapler in the desk; it must have been a 5th grader that did this."

That sounded good to me. At least I was "off the hook." YEAH!

Melannie Victoria
Grade 2

My best day was on this past Monday when it was my dad's first day to come eat with me and he brought me a hamburger.

He brought my family too. My mom and sister came also. We sat and ate and visited. That was so much fun.

Then it was time to go. He told me that he would come eat with me again on the last day of school.

I really enjoyed my family coming to school. And of course, I enjoyed the hamburger too.
