Hot Dog

Gaby B. 3rd

One sunny day a girl named Sam (short for Samantha) was watering her mom's garden. Then, she thought she herd something following her...

"Who goes there?" she said with the water whose in her hand. It was a dog.

"Oh, hey there!" she said.

She took the dog into the house and gave him a name. The dog was black and had one white spot on his chest. He wasn't shaggy; he looked like a Lab.

"Hmmm... I think I'll call you ... SHADOW!" Sam said.

She put him in a medium sized box. He was only about one foot long.

When her mom got home she let Sam keep him. But dad said... NO! "Please!" She begged. She had one day to prove she could take care of Shadow.

One hot, hot day Sam left to the beach with her family. But, they forgot to give Shadow water! He waited until they got home. When dad saw the dog he told Sam if she couldn't take care of Shadow... they would have to sell him.

The next day they sold Shadow to a family. Her friend's family! She visited Shadow often.

One day Sam told Shadow, "I'm sorry. I almost turned you into a HOT DOG!!!"

The END

The pajama pig

Griffin Y. 3rd

Once upon a time there was a pig named Pudge Blaylock. He plays with the Texas Rangers. Today he had a big game. He was catcher. It was the fifth inning.

"STRIKE 3! You're out," Pudge muttered.

It was time for us to bat. Pudge was up. The wind up, the pitch, HOME RUN! The Rangers took the lead. Next up A-rod. A-rod got to second. The game was over. The Rangers won.

"We're going' to the World Series!" Pudge yelled.

It was the first inning of the World Series. We were up to bat. Palmeiro was first. He was out now. Then Pudge hit a home run!! The Rangers won the game!

The Ocean

Alexandria S. 5th

I am big, beautiful, and blue,

Also dangerous too,
You wouldn't like the depths of me,

Scary things you might see,

High tides have do I,
At the bottom starfish lie,

At the beginning you might not guess,

That I was a great big mess,

Maybe now you see,
That I am like the sea,

I am the ocean you should know,

I sway and sway to and fro'

Sorry I must end,
For unhealed wounds I must mend.

FAIRIES

Jade G. 5th

"I hate learning new spells!" said Gwin

"It's not fair that I was born a regular fairy!" complained Gwin

"Stop whining!" said Esemé

Esemé is so lucky she is a fire fairy and still knows simple magic. "Hurry up everyone!" said Crystal the ice fairy. "The Rosalyn the queen fairy is coming to inspect us!"

"That wasn't sup post to be for another week!" said Ella the forest fairy.

"She's coming!" said Tulip the time travel fairy.

There she is oh I'm nervous.

"Attention fairies my magic wand has been stolen!" said Rosalyn.

"I will test you."

"If you are brave enough to take on my challenge go on to the front lawn to prove your skills!"

"Any questions."

"Do you know who stole it.?" Asked Cecelia the snow fairy

"Yes." She said

"The fallen fairy."

Everyone gasped.

"5:00 to night." said Rosalyn

Everyone is going to the challenge. I don't stand a chance against my sisters. I might as well go. I probably not going to get picked. "Hey, Gwin are you going to the challenge?" asked Rammy the rain fairy

"Of course I am!"

"Everyone knows you won't get picked for the mission." She said

"Inless the Fairy Goddess visits you in the next hour and deliver you full power. But you and both know that it would never happen!"

NOBSAY that's fairy talk for snob.

"Come on everyone." Said Ella

I am really nervous. "Attention everyone!" said Rosalyn

"Show me your best spell that you have learned." She said

"State your name and powers." She said

"Begin!"

"Ella the forest fairy, powers simple magic and can make things grow."

"Esemé the fire fairy, powers simple magic and can make fire."

"Tulip the time travel fairy, powers able to travel through time."

"Ceclia the snow fairy, powers able to make it snow."

"Crystal the ice fairy, powers able to make it ice."

"Ramy the rain fairy powers able t make it rain."

Oh great I'm next I think I'm going to be sick.

"Gwin the regular fairy powers simple magic, I said with a sigh

"I believe I have made my decision!" Rosalyn yelled

"I will you tell you in the morning." She said

"Goodnight, see you in the morning."

"I wonder who gets to go defeat the fallen fairy?" asked Ella

"All of us." Said Ramy

Maybe Ramy will be nice to me. I thought

"All except for Gwin!" she said

Never mind. I thought

"Well I better get some beauty sleep." She said

"You're definitely going to need it." I said

"I otta turn you into fairy dust!"

"STOP FIGHTING both of you!" said Crystal

"We all need to get some rest." Esemé said

"She's right if you want to keep your strength up to fight the fallen fairy." Explained Crystal

The next morning we all went out to the lawn to see who got the job. "The fairies that get to go with me to fight the fallen fairy, are Ella, Esemé, Tulip, Crystal, Cecelia, and last but not least Ramy." She said

"What about me!" I spoke up

"I'm sorry Gwin but in less the fairy goddess visits you in the next five minutes than you can't go."

I ran all the way to my room plopped down on my bed and cried and cried until Tulip came in to see if I was okay. "Are you okay?" she asked

"I guess." I said

"I just wanted to say good bye... so bye."

"Bye"

"Oh and Rosalyn is going to, so you will be the only one here," Said Tulip as she walked out the door.

"Okay"

I watched my sisters and the queen fly away.

Well on the bright side I get the whole house to myself..

1 week later

As I ate my dinner I herd something up stairs. I cleaned my plate and gave the rest to Figgy our cat and went up stairs to see who or what was up there. It was the Fairy Goddess.

"Who are you looking for there aren't any regular fairies here except me." I said

"I'm here for you."

"Your sisters and the queen have been captured!"

"And it's up to you to save them." She explained

"How in the world am I suppose to save them when I'm only a regular fairy." I said

"You can if you have all the powers like the queen." She said

"Now all you have to do is make a fairy circle stand in it and say the magic words.

"That's it."

"Now the magic words are Yriaf."

"All right Yriaf."

"Okay, now I will take you to the Fallen Fairies hideout."

"But that's it."

1 hour later

"There they are now by see you at the fairy convention." Said the Fairy Goddess

2 hours later

By then I had frozen all of the Fallen Fairies army.

"Help, Help somebody HELP!"

It was Tulip. I looked through one of the windows and the Fallen Fairy was about to dip them in anti fairy liquid. I flew through the window froze the Fallen Fairy. Untied my sisters got back the scepter and flew back home and everyone happily ever after.
