I asked the 1st & 2nd some questions again and here they are...

1) What if all the flowers in the world were candy? 2) What if kids were permitted to go on a field trip to outer space station? 3) What if my mother was Mayor of Comanche? 4) What if there were no boxes in the world? & 5) What if all the trees in the world had chocolate leaves? And there answers were...

If all the trees in the world were chocolate, I'd eat them! It would be really good if they had the crunchy stuff in them! The ground would be chocolate too! I'd eat the ground too! It would have the crunchy stuff in it too! I'd play outside all day!

It would be awesome!

If all of the trees in the world were chocolate, I would eat all of the trees in the world and then I would be big! Then I would have an enormous stomachache and a enormous stomach. Maybe it would be best if the world wasn't full of chocolate, at least for me it would.

What if all the flowers in the world were candy? I would cook the candy and maybe I would eat all of it. I would probably get real fat and my teeth would fall out. That wouldn't be fun.

However, if I ate only some of the candy I'd enjoy that, I would also share with others.

If my Mom were the President of the United States, I would live in the White House and I would go to school in a limousine and I would wear a formal gown to school. My mom would be rich and my bank would be full of gold and I would be Happy!

If all the flowers were candy, Mmmm boy I will have fun. I will eat all that I want but, not all of it. I will get real fat. O' boy my little sister will love it. She will try to eat all the candy in the whole world.

It would be a really nice candy world.

If all the trees were chocolate I would eat them it would be good. But if they fell on the ground I would not eat it. I would cut all the trees down and eat them for lunch and dinner. It would be good. My dog would be delighted too.

I live in a mansion. All of our trees are chocolate and flowers. We have 100 almond chocolate, 100 caramel chocolate trees, and milk. and 200 pieces of caramel, 100 pieces of bubble gum and 200 pieces of blue berry bubble gum. But mostly I pick candy. I made a gigantic freezer so the chocolate would not melt. My favorite thing to do is put the bubble gum on the chocolate.

If all this was really true, I would be very happy. YUM YUM!!!

If my mom were mayor of Comanche I would not have to do my homework because my mom will declare that schools from kindergarten to 2nd grade and 6th grade not to have homework. That way I won't have homework. I will get to ride in a limousine to school and to my mom's office. I would get to buy lots of toys.

I know she would be a good mayor. I know that for sure.

If my mother were Governor of Texas we would ride in limousine to New-York and I would live in a mansion! We would have a swimming pool with a waterfall and we could play videogames whenever we wanted to! I would have all the Yu- Gi-Oh cards in Texas! Life would be the greatest!

What if all the trees were all chocolate? I would build a chocolate city. I would like to make a limousine out of chocolate. I would make a factory out of chocolate,

My toys would be out of chocolate and my house would be out of chocolate, Even the school would be chocolate, Yum! Yum! I wouldn't mind going to school then. It would be great.

I would make chocolate ice cream with strawberries and cherries; I would put fruit on top. I would eat all of the chocolate in the world.

My life would be so much happier if I could have all the chocolate in the world.

What if my mom were mayor of Comanche? She would be in her office with her guitar on National TV. And if my mom were mayor she could let us only go to school for only 5 days.

Also what my mom could build every thing in Comanche out of money. I would be the happiest kid in the world.

So if my mom were mayor I would be happy for her. It would be an honor for her to be mayor of Comanche.

If my mother was Governor of Texas, it would be fun! We would live in a mansion! There would be a swimming pool in are back yard! We would live in Austin! And Mom would be on T.V.! Maybe I could too! Maybe I could ride to school in a limousine! And I would go to Chuckie Cheeses'.

Life would be great!

If my mom was a mayor I could buy any toy I could wish for. I could ride in a limousine to school. I could go to space with my parents. I would not have to go to school. My life would certainly be happier.

What if my mother was mayor of Comanche? She would give me money for my birthday. That would be fun.

She would help me on my homework if it were hard. I would ride in a limousine to school. My mom would let me call my friends. I would have a lot of fun. We would only have 3 days of school.

My mom would be the best mayor. We would have a lot of money.

What if kids were permitted to go on a field trip to the space station? We would test the flying rocket. We would meet the new space team. We would see when it is going to launch. We would be able to see the fire behind the rocket. I say, "Boy it would be great to go to the space station."

I hope I have the opportunity some day.

If my mother were mayor of Comanche I would go to school in a limousine instead of a regular car. Also I would not have to do my homework. We would have a metal detector on our front door.

Also I could e-mail another mayor's daughter in a different town like Dallas or Arlington.

Also I would get out of school early to get people to campaign for her. If my mother becomes the mayor I'd be so proud. I think I'll ask her today.

The crook took a scale from my banana store and buried it behind the trash can. Then the hippo came and said, "I will get the scale back." He found the scale and took it, So I went to get it back with my rusty pistol, I didn't have to argue with him.
