I asked the GVT kids creative questions and is our motto they answered with creative thoughts. Please, read on to find out what they thought. Enjoy!!

Ian S. 1st

If I could be ice cream I would rather be pistachio because it would not taste too bad and that is good. I like its color green. And that is why I would rather be a pistachio ice cream.

Alex S. 1st

I would like to be a piece of candy because I would always be sweet and I would be so tasty and everybody would love me. I would make a great Valentine's gift.

Caroline W. 1st

I would rather be a piece of candy more than a potato chip because I would be sweet and pretty and colorful and flavorful and very smart everyone would want me to be around.

Enna C. 1st

I would rather build a house out of chocolate. Because when I get hungry I would have something to eat. I would take a chunk out of the house when I am hungry, when I run out of chocolate I would buy another house of chocolate. Maybe then I would be tired of chocolate. Who knows?

Hayden T. 1st

If I could survive on one food it would be hush puppies because I LOVE hush puppies and because hush puppies are my favorite food and I am sure they are everyone else's too.

Isaac M. 1st

If I could swim in a soda I would drink it. I would fill the swimming pool all up fifty times. I would live in it too. It would feel fizzy. It would be my bathroom. WOW! I wouldn't have to take a bath in the water.

John W. 1st

I would rather build an airplane because people would think that it is very comfortable. They would think it is as comfortable as home. I would get so much money and I would be rich and it would be like a motel.

Payton N. 1st

If I could build a airplane out of anything, I would choose a banana because I could use the banana for the wings. I could use the peelings for make the propellers. I would use the pulp of the banana for the roof. This would really be an interesting airplane.

Raquel E. 1st

If I could be an ice cream cone I would be a chocolate one and I would be popular. I could please everyone and everyone would be happy.

Brenna W. 2nd

Once upon a time there was a beautiful paint horse! She was fearless! Her name was SASSY! She was going to have a baby any day now! I was going to catch that horse and tame her for mine! I was going to take care of he baby! And guess what. I caught that horse! And I took care of that baby! And then I let them go after a long time!

And lets just say I let the momma choose the name of the baby!

Jesus H. 2nd

I would rather swim in a gigantic enormous pool of soda like Dr pepper. I would not like the milk shake because they are not cool enough for me. So that is why I picked soda and a diving board to jump into it.

Karen D. 2nd

I would rather swim in soda instead of a milkshake. I have never tasted a milkshake before. So I would swim in a giant big extra big really gigantic pool of soda. It will be sprite. I will need a big straw to drink it. It will taste so good that I would drink it forever. Just then I burped and there was another big pool of soda.

Kaylee P. 2nd

If I had one type of candy to build a flying machine it would be salt-water taffy. I could shape it easily. It would not melt or freeze in summer or winter.

I would fly all over the United States. It would be so much fun.

Kelli P. 2nd

I would rather have a house made out of chocolate than cheese because I could eat the chocolate every day for breakfast lunch and dinner. I would never have to go to the store to get food because it would be at my house. I would never move out of that house.

Until all the chocolate is gone. I would love my house!

Madison H. 2nd

Mireya L. 2nd

I would rather swim in a soda because a milkshake isn't really that good. I like the soda because it makes me feel so cool. It makes me get up and go to work, play, learn and read.

A milkshake doesn't really give me a feeling like that.

Morgan H. 2nd

I would rather been eaten then to die. I would like to get eaten by a whale because they won't chew me. They will just swallow me and spit me out of their air hole. So that's why I would like to get eaten more then to die.

But by that time I would be hungry too!

Zane E. 2nd

If I had A horse that my brothers could not ride, it would be cool. I would not have to take turns. I could have my own fence.

But there would be one problem. My mom and dad might not agree with me.

Dillon C. 2nd

If I would have a choice to swim in milkshake or soda I would swim in a milkshake because it would be very tasty. Milkshakes are smooth and I would drink it all up.
