

1st and 2nd G\T Open House

Meagan J. 5th

December 16, first and second grade G\T had their Open House. All parents, friends, relatives, and the G\T classes themselves attended, and over a hundred

G/T Inventions

Yassiel I. 5th

For G/T we had to think of an invention that had not been invented before.

If we thought of an invention that had been invented, we had to think of another invention. The way we knew that the invention had been invented or not invented was to look them up on the computer, and most of us had to rethink of an invention. Then we had to ask 10 people what they thought about our inventions. After that we made graphs on what we asked them. We then placed them on our display board, and talking about display board we had to make one too. The last parts of the invention was the model and drawing.

Bluebonnets

Sean P. 5th

On January 14, the 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade voted on their favorite Bluebonnet book. At Comanche Elementary the winner was Togo, which was about a dog who brought medicine to a city far away from his city. We hope our votes are the same as the overall state.

people came!

The G\T kids got a chance to show off their inventions. The students set up a display board that told about their invention, and then explained the invention. I also being in G\T I know the challenges, my hat goes off to them!!

Mrs. McGettis New Pets

Christopher M. 3rd

She has an iguana, parrot, two turtles and four fish. The iguana and the parrot come from the rainforest. The fish and the turtles she does not know. The iguana is a reptile. Turtles are amphibians. The bird is an Amazona and the fish are tropical. The iguana and the bird do bite, but the fish and turtles do not. She got the turtles and the iguana before Christmas. She got the fish and the bird after Christmas. She got the turtles and the iguana from the mall. She got the fish from Pet's mart. She got the parrot from a friend. And that is the pets she got.

The Stock Show

Daisy L. 5th

We got a break from school for the stock show on Jan. 17 & 18. At the stock show people showed all sorts of animals like pigs, horses, sheep, goats, and cows. They competed against everyone who showed in Comanche County. If they won grand champion or reserved champion they got their picture in the newspaper. They have lots of fun showing, making new friends, playing with friends, and playing with animals. For everyone that showed good job!

Bringing Cheer to Seniors

Cameron E. 5th

The third, fourth, and fifth grade decided to go cheer up the people in the nursing home. They made cards and sang songs. Third grade went Monday, December 13, to Western Hills. Fourth grade went Tuesday, December 14, to Whitestone Manor. Fifth grade went Wednesday, December 15, to Western Hills.

Mrs. Taylor's Foot

Steven B. 3rd

This morning I saw Mrs. Taylor in crutches. I was surprised! I asked her a few questions. A plate from another surgery broke off and her toe broke. Mrs. Taylor says that the hardest thing about using crutches is walking down the steps and walking down the long hall. She said when her foot woke up that it was hurting. She doesn't know how long she's going to keep the walking boot. She had her surgery on December 17, 2004 at Fort Worth.

Mrs. Gleaton

Daisy L. 5th

Mrs. Gleaton the fifth grade reading teacher went to the hospital because she had a heart attack. The doctors put in two stents. The doctors say she can come to school in the morning and leave in the afternoon. We are glad she is back!!

Conduct Movies

Yahaira N. 5th

As ya'll all know for Christmas holidays everyone was able to watch the movies? Well on January 8, our conduct movies were back, but now it was a new thing. We were able to sign for the movie we wanted to see. The movies were in Mrs. Walker's, Mrs. Carlisle's, and Mrs. Harwell's class. We watched three movies and they were Rudy, Cool Runnings, and Homeward Bound

G/T Recognition

Seth S. 5th

On Monday, January 10, the fifth grade G\T was recognized for participation in the State Performance Pilot Program last year. The recognition program was at the Comanche High School Library. The school board arranged the program, and hosted it. The G\T was also given certificates of achievement, too. The school board is made up of Mr. Labin Scott, Mr. Harold Higginbotham, Mr. Harry Dudley, Mrs. Rachel Hilliard, and Mr. Dan Holland.
