Mrs. schuman asked her students to write about the day they came back to school and found a surprise substitute teacher.

Grade 1

Wow! Was I ever surprised! On January 2, Red Power Ranger was at school to be my substitute teacher.

I was so excited. But I didn't know if he could be a teacher.

He told us to sit down so that he could give us the power to learn things. He said he would help us to have everyone as a friend.

Then we played a game called Friendly Power Rangers. If someone did something wrong, he taught them to do the right thing.

I will always remember what a good teacher he was.

On January 2, I came into my classroom and my substitute teacher was Luke Skywalker. I was shocked. Where was Mrs. Stephens? She wasn't there.

Luke Skywalker said, "I'm here because Mrs. Stephens has a doctor's appointment. I'm going to be your teacher. I will show you the power of math."

When he asked me a question, I could always answer it. That was because I had the power to answer. My, I was so surprised.

I will always remember Skywalker and the day he was my substitute teacher. I hope I can keep my power for answering questions.

WOW! My substitute teacher was Spider Man on the day I came back to school.

I didn't know what he was doing at school I didn't see Mrs. Underwood.

Spiderman said, "Sit down everybody. I am going to teach you how to read."

He first read a story to us and then we read a story to him. He let us read an easy book than he had read to us. His spider web was above our heads.

I will always remember that he also taught us how to climb a wall. I was excited about that. Spider Man was a great substitute teacher.

Grade 2

I came back to school on January 2, 2008 and I couldn't believe my eyes. My substitute teacher was Jimmy Neutron. Yes, you heard what I said, Jimmy Neutron, the Boy Genius. Jimmy is only 10 years old, but he has already been to college. He was very kind, friendly and exciting. What a shock! I sat there and I just couldn't believe it.

But it was true. Jimmy likes to fool around with gadgets. So he told us we would make gadgets all day long. Well mine just turned out fantastic. I loved it. I was really proud of myself. I called my gadget Robotron.

I will always remember the day Jimmy was our substitute. After all, this doesn't happen very often. I couldn't believe that he knew about everything. He was so smart.

The first person I told was my cousin, Jacey. He couldn't believe it either. I think he was amazed.

Camron Creek Grade 2

When I got to school on the 2nd of January guess what I saw? Spider Man. It was exciting. My class was going to have him as our substitute. We couldn't believe it was true.

That day we didn't have math. Instead, Spider Man taught us how to save people. Spidey was very understanding and kind so he was always saving someone. He also taught us now to web swing. When you web swing, you have to shoot the web out and then ride on it. I really couldn't learn to do that. So I didn't make too good a grade, but no one else did either. Spider Man didn't seem to mind.

All in all, it was a fantastic day.

Emily Tindol Grade 2

On January 2, 2008 I got back to school and there was a big surprise! I had a substitute that really shocked me. It was Barbie. She was wearing a gold long dress. It sparkled like the sun. I was so turned on as we learned more and more. She taught us how to be models. She was so patient and kind.

After school, Barbie said, "I am going to be your substitute for the week."

Yippy! I was even more excited and overjoyed.

The one thing I will always remember is her glamorous clothing. Everyday she wore something different and more glamorous.

The first people I told were my parents. They said, "Emily, you know that did not happen. It is just your imagination."

I said, "Oh, yes it did." My mom and dad just walked away, shaking their heads.

Joe Gilligan Grade 2

When I got to school and went into my classroom on January 2, I couldn't believe my eyes. My substitute teacher was Spider-Man. He was caring and he was honest and polite.

He said he liked math very much so we did math in the morning. It was really exciting doing math, especially since Spider Man was my teacher.

The other teachers were shocked to see Spider-Man at the school too. At twelve o'clock, we learned how to climb a wall. That really turned everyone on. It got really wild. But we enjoyed it.

One thing I will always remember is he had to leave for a few minutes. We worried about him— why was he gone and who was he going to save? I found out that it was my mom. Spidey saved my mom from having a car accident. I was so happy.

When I got home, the first person I told was my dad. He didn't believe me. But I just walked away saying, "Bit it is true. It really is, Dad."
