I will not eat a bowl of worms for $50,000 because they are slime and they are yucky and they will waste my money

NO NO I will never eat worms.

If I could switch places with my Mom, I would make the children do push-ups and make them eat worms. I would make the little babies jump rope. And I would make my dad eat grasshoppers.

I think everybody would rather that I'm not my MOM.

Enna C 1st

I wouldn't eat a bowl of worms for $50,000 because they are slimy. They will taste bad and they will wiggle in my mouth they will tickle my mouth and it would taste bloody. And because it would waste my money.

They are just worms and they would smell bad, if they were dead. If I did keep them, I would put them in my freezer.

When I take them to eat, they would smell so bad it would stink the whole house and no one would want to come to my house and I do not want my friends to think that I have worms in my house and that is why I will not eat worms.

If a giant comet were going to hit Earth, I would run in circles and yell, "Help me! Help me!"

I am running in circles because I don't want the comet to hit me. When the comet hits, I would jump in the hole and say "Yippee!"

I could trade places with my dad I would get his job. And also because he is the nicest guy I know. I would like to be like him.

If my uncle were the new president, I would have him make everyone ride a horse with a saddle. The United States of America would be called Horse town. There wouldn't be cement, only dirt. The country would be full of horses and cowboys and cowgirls.

I would really like that.

John W 1st

If the new President were my aunt, I would tell her to let me do anything I wanted to do. I would make her take me swimming every day and we would have birthday parties two times a year for everyone.

I doubt if my aunt will ever be the President of the United States. But who knows.

Payton N1st

If my uncle was president he get $100,000.

He would buy me the zoo. Then I could make lots of money.

Raquel E 1st

I would not eat worms and I would not take the money. If they force me to eat them I will not taste them. I would want to mush them all. The man would say, "NO! NO! Do not do that". I would rather feed them to the fish.

If I could trade places with my brother I would party with my friends all night! It would be awesome! And the best part is I COULD DRIVE!!! The wind could blow through my hair as I drive a convertible!!! Wahoooo!!! I'd be with my friends! I'd go to every football game!

Changing places with my brother would be awesome!

If I could trade places with my dad I get a changing machine And then I would change into my dad I could work in the Dairy. I could work on a tractor and I would pick up the Baby cows and clean up the cow" mess and give the Cows feed.

If I could be my dad I would feel strong and proud.

If I could trade places with my mom I would want to do it because I can work with a real live chinchilla. Chinchillas are half rabbit and half dog. Some chinchillas are black and some are brown and some are white with black or brown. I would get to feed the chinchillas and I will get to give the chinchillas water. And I would get to comb their hair and I would get to wash them.

Kelli P 2nd

If I could trade places with one of my parents I would choose my mom. I would work at the DeLeon Hospital and I would be the helper at my church. When I come home I would be very tired because she goes to bed late and wakes up early. Oh I wish I could be my mom. I could take her place.

I love my mom she is cool!

If a giant meteor were going to hit the Earth in two weeks my family and I would move to another planet. It would be Mars. All my friends and there families would go to Mars with us.

If a meteor was going to hit the Earth and we only had two weeks to build a space shuttle we would get ready. In case we did not have the space shuttle ready, I would get ready by putting flying backpacks on Every one on the Earth could have one in case if the meteor came before schedule.

But luckily, the space shuttle is ready and we have every one on the Earth in with us. We are ready for takeoff 10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1 0 blastoff!!

We will probably see the meteor on our way to Mars but I'll see YOU back on Earth in 10 years after the meteor hits Earth.

Mireya L 2nd

If I could change places with one of my parents I would change places with my mom. Then I could cook food. I will work at a dairy. I will give the little calves some feed and something to drink.

Probably my mom needs a rest anyway and she would be glad for me to take her place for a while.

Morgan H 2nd

If I could trade places it would be my sister, I would be very popular. I would have boyfriends and get to have parties. It would be a dream to me! I would have a vehicle and have my own poodle. It would be so much fun! I would have a cell phone. I could also put perfume and makeup on me! I would love to have my own room! I would even have CD's and a boom box.

Zane E 2nd

If I could trade places with my dad I would spank my brothers. It would be fun. The best part would be that I would not have to go to school. I could drive a truck. I would not have to mind my dad. I could have all the guns to go hunting with. I think this would really be fun.

Kaylee P 2nd

If I were offered a bowl of worms for fifty thousand dollars I would do it. I would spend it on a car. Then the car would be blue. The car would be a Durango. I would drive it to New York City and back to Texas again. It would be so much fun. I would be glad that I ate that bowl of worms.
