Halloween
Saul L 3rd

Thousand of years ago in England, Scotland, Ireland, and some other places, people felt that at summer's end, the army of winter – ghost, goblins, witches, and other evil creatures would grow very strong. So the night before summer's end, October 31, was a frightening time! People were sure that all the wicked creatures would be out celebrating and might attack them! To protect themselves, people held special ceremonies. They built big bonfires on hilltops to light up the night. That's why we have Halloween.

Ereth's Birthday
Libby E 5th

Ereth's Birthday is about a porcupine that is grumpy and bitter. He finds a mother fox that get's caught in a trap. He has to take care of the mother's kittens till their father get's back. The kittens and the porcupine have to find food, but they have to watch out for traps that hunters have put out in the woods.

They have to find a way to get food without getting caught in a trap. If you want to find out more about the book, you'll have to read the book. I love this book because it is hilarious and has action in it. I hope you get a chance to read this book.

Book Review
Cameron E 5th

The book I am reading is called Hank The Cow dog and the mop water files. At the first Hank's trying to keep his shade, but it seems to keep moving away from him. He tries to figure out who's moving it. Then here comes Drover wandering if Hank wants to know if he wants to see him catch a grasshopper. Then he sees Beula and Drover yells caught one Hank.
