Secret Shoes Gabrylle B. 4th

"Miny wake up!" Mom would shout in the morning.

Miny was a short brown haired girl with a weird dog named Pudge. He was the funniest bulldog you've ever seen. If you got a bowl of cereal, he'd start dancing like the dog on the Kibbles and Bits commercial! While Miny was at school she would always hear someone calling her but she never knew who it was.

"Miny...Miny. ...MINY," they'd call..

"What?" she'd wondered.

After school one day she heard it again. "Aha! It's my shoes! My shoe!" Miny fainted.

"Hey you ever think of wash-in' me woman?" the shoe asked. "I mean your dog smells better than me." Pudge looked at the shoe and growled.

"But how can you talk? Your just a shoe." Miny said, but kept on walking.

"Just a shoe? Girl where have you been? My cousin in Africa is just a shoe and....

"Enough with the lectures," Miny interrupted.

"Girl you better keep me a secret," the shoe said.

"All right," Miny said.

The next day everyone was looking at Miny whispering to her shoe. In order for the shoe to remain silent, Miny had attached a muzzle.

"Let me talk!," the shoe said. Miny, looked around to see if anyone was listening or looking at her.

Miny said, "No! No! You are going to embarrass me. Now stop it." Miny thought to herself that she was going to have to do something. She would have to decide before tomorrow.

And guess what. When she got home from school that day, her mother had bought her a brand new pair of shoes. Miny was thrilled. This would solve her problem.

But she vowed she would keep her "talking" shoes and never throw them away.

The Adventure Princess R. 3rd

A lazy day Sassy, Lesa, and Lona were reading The Adventure. They started to disappear in purple, pink, and blue mist. Then the adventure really began!

First, they were in the crypt of King Tut. Then a map popped up and said fight the mummies with the three-headed Jaguar and these swords. Go to level 2. They hopped on the Jaguar's back and said, "Attack!" The mummies were defeated.

They looked at the map; go through the desert to the Jungle for level 2. They ran in the desert to level 2. The map said around below the devil warrior. They ran to a hollow tree because it was getting dark.

There was a tunnel going into the forest to level 3. Let's go to level 4 in the tree. Crawl up the tree and don't let the jaguar drink the sap.

Great, we're at level 4! Only one more level left. Go to the T.V. and jump and clap. You'll be in the cartoon Ed, Edd, and Eddy. Run to Rolf's house and let the goat, Victor, point you to the cellar to go to the last level. Go to Atlantic and go through the Diamonds and collect any you can. Then go to the altar and say, go, meow, go, go, go, kitty, kitty, meow. Then you go home and keep the swords and the jaguar and the diamonds.

The voice left cookies and milk for Sassy, Lesa, Lona and their new friend, Fluffy, the jaguar. They slept all night and always read that book and went on adventures.

The Invasion Of Mosquitoes

Ranlee K. 3rd

The invasion of mosquitoes

They are evil.

We fight today.

There are too many mosquitoes.

They make an invasion.

I have seen mosquito babies

The size of tadpoles—for real!

We need the exterminator.

"HELP!"

The Missing Blake D. 4th

Scientists are gaining new technology with under water sea life. Many scientists are studying various things under the ocean. However, sometimes very unexpected things happen when divers go under the sea.

Just recently two main scientists, Taylor and Hannah Jackson were going on an exploration diving trip.

Suddenly the boat lost radar from their fellow scientists. Immediately, help from the coast guard was called in.

Sergeant Young and I were on call. We took off quickly to go to the area where we were to investigate. We arrived at the location as fast as we could. (Splash) It was now nine forty five and we were under water. As a pack of dolphins swam by we saw something glowing at the bottom of the sea. As we started down we were cautious as a barracuda went by.

As we began to see the bottom of ocean our eyes were blinded by something shining brightly. It looked like a tiny diamond about three inches tall and three inches wide.

Quickly we took it back to the surface. As we looked at the diamond we were amazed because what we saw was two tiny human beings. We got it to the lab as fast as we could.

Sergeant Young and I looked at the diamond under a microscope. As we looked at the tiny people we saw that the tiny people had on U.S.A. diving suits. The same diving suits Taylor and Hannah had worn that day.

The Nano Drill, a powerful drill ray, would be used to try to get Taylor and Hannah Jackson out of the diamond. As the Nano Drill cut through the diamond the diamond suddenly cracked and sure enough, out came the two scientists.

As they came out of the diamond they immediately grew back to normal size. It was quite a sight to see.

But the world would never quite know what happened that strange day.

Volcano Man

Saul L. 3rd

Once upon a time in Japan a man named Lee went to a volcano. He was brave. He wanted to jump in the volcano. A lot of people said no, but he didn't listen. He had a long time to walk.

It took him four hours to get there. Then he got there. He was scared. No one had jumped and come back from the volcano. He felt if he jumped and came back, he would have special powers. He prayed that he would be the first one to come back but with power. Then he jumped.

No one heard about him. It was weeks and months. No one had seen him. One year later he came back but with powers. His powers were lava and fire. A lot of people where scared. He was not scary. He was happy to come back. A little girl was there, it was his sister. He carried her home.

World War Shoes: Shoe Harbor

Zac C. 4th

Shoe Harbor 1941, hundreds of the U.S.A.'s shoe-planes were loaded onto an aircraft carriers. Jason Mike was about to land on the U.S.S. Arizona when suddenly, shoe-guns started firing everywhere! Japan's shoe- planes had invaded Shoe Harbor!

"Men! Get ready for battle!" Jason shouted on his radio.

There were men everywhere! At shoe cannons, shoe-planes, and even men got on foot with shoe-guns!

They fought and fought destroying Japanese and American lives. But it wasn't enough. The fight only lasted nine minutes, and Shoe Harbor sunk.

That was it! From that point on, we were part of World War Shoes.
