Animals Facts

Alex Sanchez 4th

Did you know that dogs have cleaner mouths than humans? The smallest bird is the humming bird. It weighs one ounce! Did you know that fish talk to each other? Some of them communicate by making noises in their throats by rasping their teeth. Others use their swim bladder to make noises. Did you know that crocodiles can't move their tongue and they can't chew?

Animals do the strangest things!

Facts about Guinea pigs

Hayden Taylor 4th

Guinea pigs are good pets. I know because when I got my guinea pig I did a lot of research.

A guinea pig has a big head, short legs, and small ears. They are called cavies. They are not really pigs. They are rodents. My guinea pig, Simba, will not escape from his cage. I try not to spoil him but he still screams for his food.

Meteors

Jasmine Matlock 4th

Meteors have more than just one name, Particles of matter or pieces of rock that fall through space are called meteoroids. If they burn up in Earth's atmosphere, they are called meteors. Most burn into nothing and are never seen again. If they do survive and hit the ground, they become meteoroids and form big craters where they land.

I enjoy science so this information on meteors is very interesting to me.

Wolfpack Football

Dillon Cotten 5th

Wolfpack football started in August and is going to end in November. The team has 22 players. The fifth graders on the team are Dillon Cotten, defensive end, Jeff Koster, cornerback, Cash Mankin, wide receiver, Wyatt Mankin, cornerback, Daniel Volleman, linebacker, and Frankie Medina, offensive lineman.

The games are all in Brownwood at the middle school, by the hospital. The Wolfpack won their first game 27-0 against the Goldthwaite

Eagles.

On September 9 the Comanche Wolfpack played the Brownwood Lions and won 52-0. September 16 the Comanche Wolfpack played the Brownwood White the Wolfpack dominated 34-0. So far nobody has scored a single point against the Comanche Wolfpack. Comanche Wolfpack is surely the team to beat.

Big cat facts

Kayden Frazier 3rd

Some big cats run fast! They have sharp claws! Lions live in a pride. Tigers love to swim. They all eat meat. Cougars live in the mountains. Most cats hate water. They come in all colors. They all have sharp teeth. You find most big cats in zoos. They have lots of bones! Some have stripes. Some are one color. Some have spots. Some live in Africa! Some live Australia. Cheetah cubs are the cutest things ever.

In the NFL

Daniel Volleman 5th

The first NFL game is in September. This year I am going for the Indianapolis Colts and the New Orleans Saints. I hope that one of them go to the Super Bowl. I have a special player on the saints called Reggie Bush.

He is the running back. I also like quarter back Drew Brees for the saints. I hope you can watch the games on the NFL channel.
